

INFORMATION FOR US TAX-PAYERS

The King's School Canterbury has put in place an agreement with BSUF (the British Schools and Universities Foundation) to facilitate tax-effective donations to the School. The BSUF is an entirely voluntary organization and takes no commissions or fees from the school nor from the donor to process your transaction.

Your donation should be made directly to the BSUF, and the form shows your preference for it to be directed to the King's School, Canterbury.

To make a donation, please complete the BSUF Donor Transmittal Form on the following page and post it with your check directly to their office in New York. To donate online via www.networkforgood.com please click here but note that a 3% transaction fee will be deducted from your donation.

For more information and friendly advice, please contact our BSUF representative:
