14:00 Sat 16 Nov 19	1st	Away	Small School's Festival	Won : 32 - 12	Tournament	On Saturday 16th November, the girls played Dunottar, Worth 1&amp;2, Charterhouse and The Royal School in an eight-a-side tournament away at Royal School. As soon as they stepped on to the pitch, it was clear that they had a chance at winning this tournament. From the first draw until the last second of the game, they were fighting for every single ball – only losing the odd ground ball. In the end, the scoreboard read 6-6. The next game against Worth's second team was less intense and within a few minutes the King's were 7-0 up. The girls slowed it down a little bit and settled the game, winning 12-0. The following game against Worth's first team proved to be equally intense as the previous game. With defence standing strong and attack working together the girls won 9-0.

						After three 20 minute back-to-back games, the girls had their first break and were told that winning the next game, could mean winning the tournament. Despite this information, the girls were not nervous as they stepped on to the pitch. Nevertheless, Royal was three goals up after the first few minutes. This could have been a turning point but instead it was exactly what the girls needed. From then on, Sze Yuen saved almost every shot, Tia and Rosie Smith as well as Freya and Scarlett stayed on their toes in defence and Eliza was on fire in attack; scoring four goals within the last three minutes of the game. A well deserved 9-6 win for King's. Hyped from their win, the girls were eager to beat Charterhouse in the last match of the day but despite a great fight and five fantastic goals, we lost 5-6. At the end of the day, the girls were disappointed to find that no scores had been kept and no winner would be announced, but I for one believe we won. Goals: Mantovani(13), Mantovani(5), Lark (4), Samoilys (4), Coady (4), Raikes (2)
