APPLICATION FORM (please read notes before completing). Return to exams@kings-school.co.uk

Completion of this form does not confirm acceptance to sit exams.

Conditions of acceptance:

You are responsible for checking that the specification you are studying is available to private candidates.

The King's School can only accommodate private candidates for written exams; no practical endorsements, speaking tests, NEA or coursework can be taken here.

We are unable to support any requests for Access Arrangements due to not having a teaching relationship with you or your private/online tutor.

You must be able to take your exams in a hall of up to 200 other candidates. The King's School site is unsuitable for people with reduced mobility as level access cannot be provided.

Please fully complete this form and return to the Academic Office (via email or post) by December 10th for exams in the following May and June. Please also send a whole clear copy of the photographic ID document you will be using for your exams; drivers' license/passport etc. You will need to bring the same ID to every exam, to verify who you are.
